

STRENGTH PERFORMANCE PROTECTION

Recognized as a leader in the financial services industry with more than 150 years of experience, Pacific Life attributes its success to a commitment to long-term stability, growth, and outstanding customer service. This commitment is reflected in our consistently high ratings received from the rating agencies.

Pacific Life Insurance Company's organization is relatively unique as we are part of a mutual holding company structure.

We are not a publicly traded company; therefore, we do not need to consider performance of a stock price when making decisions.

Pacific Life Insurance Company and Pacific Life & Annuity Company ratings as of June 2019 are in bold. Sources: Companies listed. A.M. Best, Standard & Poor's, Fitch Ratings Ltd., and Moody's Investors Service ratings are based on financial strength. These ratings do not apply to the safety or performance of the separate accounts funding Pacific Life's variable products. These ratings reflect the claims-paying ability only and are not a guarantee of future performance.

While ratings can be objective indicators of an insurance company's financial strength and can provide a relative measure to help select among insurance companies, they are not guarantees of the future financial strength and/or claims-paying ability of a company and do not apply to any underlying variable investment options. The broker/dealer or the insurance agency from which an annuity may be purchased and any affiliates of those entities are not affiliated with the rating agencies, are not involved in any rating agency's analysis of insurance companies, and make no representations regarding the quality of the analysis conducted by the rating agencies.

Pacific Life refers to Pacific Life Insurance Company and its affiliates, including Pacific Life & Annuity Company.
